John Mayers et als vs. Archibald Leger. Continued for want of counsel and Clerk to notify the A. M. C. Taylor vs. Samuel Lusk, A. Perry et als. Continued for want of counsel, notice to be given by C. and E. Greene, Executor and Executrix of John Greene, deceased, vs. Abraham Jobe. Hawkins, Judge - Delivered the apinion of the Court Thos. A. R. Nelson, for defendant in error. Maxwell and Milligan, for plaintiffs in error. In this case there was a verdict and judgment in the Circuit Court of Washington county-to reverse which, an appeal is prosecuted to this Court. And it is now insisted that the judgment of the Circuit Court is erroneous and should be reversed, because there is no proof in the record upon which the verdict can be sustained. A deposition has been transcribed by the Clerk of the Circont Court and incorporated into the record in this cause, and it relied upon to show that the verdict is against the evidence, &c. There is no bill of exceptions in the record, and it i well settled by a course of Judicial Decisions in Tennessee, that before extemporaneous matters can become a part of the record, they must be made so by a bill of exceptions, or, in some manner authenticated by the Judge. No such thing having been done in this case: theretore, the deposition referred to cannot be regarded as a part of the Record in this case. The Record does not show upon what evidence the verdict was based: -- the presumption is therefore, it was well founded, and unless the contrary appear the further presumption is, that the judgment of the Circuit Court is correct and is there-Friday, September 15th, 1865. Nelson & Smithpeter, Executors of Michael Smithpeter vs. William and Hiram Smithpeter. vs. William and Hiram Smithpeter.

Thes. A. B. Nelson, for complainants.

Maxwell and Millegsn, for Defendants.

Shackleford, Judge—Delivered the opinion.

Michael Smithpeter died in the county of Johnson, on the 23d of October, 1856, having made his last will and testament, which was admitted to probate. In his will there is the following bequest:

"It is my will and desire that Susan and Lucinda shall be emancipated, if the laws of the land will permit them to remain in the State, or if they or either of them shall separate that the proceeded with exparts. It is further to remain in the State, or if they or either of them shall separate that the proceeded with exparts. It is further to remain in the State, or if they or either of them shall separate that this notice be published for four successive weeks.

Sep20-41: to remain in the State, or if they or either of them shall prefer to go to a free country; and if not, then they shall have and enjoy a questifreedom in this country; and shall have the right of managing and working for themselves; and it is my will further, that my executors shall pay t and it is my will further, that my execute the cach of said negro women the sum of two hundred dollars out of the first monies which shall come into their hands, and allow them in addition thereto, their clothing and all the household and kitchen furniture, which they or either of them shall or may have on hand at the time of my death."

If appearing from the allegations of this bill that A. M. Welface and W. C. Walface are non-residents of the State of Tennessee: It is ordered that publication be made for four successive weeks in Brownlow's Whig, notifying said non-residents to appear at the next term of the Chancery Court, to be held in Maryville, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November next, then and there to plead, answer, or demure to said till, or the same will be taken as confessed, and set for bearing ex party.

Afterwards, Susan electing to remain and go into velantary servitude under the provisions of the Act of the 24th of March, 1858. A Supplemental Bill was filed by the Executors claiming Susan and William Ross, the Executors claiming Susan and William Ross, the ability of the child of Lucinda, she being used as the property of the ability of the child of Lucinda, she being used as the property of the ability of the child of Lucinda, she being used as the property of the child of the chil tal Bill, and the Excentors have brought the case to this It is unnecessary to determine the questions raised in the record in reference to the right of the girl Susan to go into voluntary servitude. The Amended Constitution of the State of Tennessee, adopted on the 22d of Febru ary, 1865, prohibits slavery or voluntary servitude in the State of Tennessee, and has ceased forever to exist. By the will the slaves Susan and Lucinda were entitled their legacies of two hundred dellars, given to each, with the other articles mentioned. Lucinda having died, leaving her child, William Ross - he is entitled to the inerests of his mother. Susan and Lucinda having been hired out from time to time, are entitled to the proceeds of their hire. The cause will be remanded to the Chancery Court of Johnson for proper accounts. Brevet Brig. Gen. W. J. Smith, of West Tennessee, arrived here a few days since. General S. was Colonel of the 6th Tennessee Cavalry, one of the best disciplined and most efficient regiments we have ever seen. As a member of the present General Assembly, he has won the esteem of every East Tennesseean who has made his acquaintance. .....
